Title: The Best Of Roger Hubbard
Artist: ROGER HUBBARD

For the first time on ZYX Music's blues label „Pepper Cake“:
 The British blues guitarist Roger Hubbard!

Born in Brighton, Rogar Hubbard is one of the most important representatives of early blues and slide guitar. Since the 60s, he played in folk clubs and continued to be interested in country and delta blues. He founded his own acoustic blues club.

“Roger Hubbard is as good as all the Blues guitarists in England or the USA” (Muddy Waters)
 “He could be one of the most exciting acoustic guitarists around” (Rolling Stone Magazine)

During the course of his exceptionally successful career, he had the pleasure of having great musicians play on several of his albums, many of whom worked closely with big names such as Eric Clapton, John Lennon, David Bowie, Chris Rea and Bonnie Rait!

His new album „The Best of Roger Hubbard“, was compiled by the master himself by choosing his own favorite compositions.

Title: Dark Blues For The Darkest Moments

Artist: VARIOUS ARTISTS

A compilation being definitely not advisable for the squeamish!

DARK BLUES FOR THE DARKEST MOMENTS is probably the darkest collection of Blues classics ever released! This is definitely music to sit in the dark and sip some hard liquor.

In particular, the opener „Death Do not Have No Mercy“ should also be well known to the younger gamers, from e.g. „Call of Duty: WW2“.

In the version by Blind Gary Davis the title is interpreted even more ghostly.

Title: Honky Tonk Piano BarArtist: BIG TINY LITTLEHörprobe: <https://goo.gl/S659Ta>

From the beginning of the 19th century, the term „Honky Tonk“ referred to a kind of pub in the south of the USA. In the small and rough pubs loud live music was played, which was similar to country music, but very quickly evolved into a genre of its own.

Well-known musicians such as Hank Williams and Bob Wills established the Honky Tonk, which ultimately influenced the development of rockabilly and rock'n'roll.

One of the best-known honky-tonk musicians is Big Tiny Little. The multi-instrumentalist, who made Honky Tonk known on American television in the 1960s, is a virtuoso on the piano and puts a smile on every listener's face.
