Title: The Best Of Dionne Warwick

Artist: DIONNE WARWICK

Hörprobe: <https://goo.gl/ZetFb2>

A very special collection of the greatest hits by Dionne Warwick, completed by previously barely released songs! Music runs through her veins and she is almost as successful as her cousin Whitney Houston.

According to the magazine Rolling Stone the multiple Grammy Award winner is considered a pioneer of the black middle-of-the-road-pop and one can feel the spirit of gospel in almost each of her fantastic songs.

Title: This is Northern Soul

Artist: VARIOUS ARTISTS

Hörprobe: <https://goo.gl/iunumt>

Northern Soul, also known as „rare-soul“, originally comes from the US, but gained its importance through the great success of the „rare soul“ LPs in England’s pop and club scene of the 70’s and early 80’s.

This collection combines some highlights of „rare soul“ by perfectly reflecting the lifestyle of this time like no other compilation.

Title: Waves of CalmArtist: JIM SNIDERO

If you trace the path of alto saxophonist Jim Snidero's varied output for Savant, you'll note transitions with regard to instrumentation and personnel: from organ combo to quartets with guitar or piano, to the animated quintet music of tributes to Miles (MD66) and Cannonball Adderley (Jubilation!). With Waves of Calm, the veteran altoist enters a period of zeroing in on the essentials. As the saxophonist himself says, "I find myself editing more and more. I've been playing saxophone for a long time, and could easily play a lot more notes...[but now] you're just looking for the right note at the right moment, searching for that one perfect thing." With trumpeter Jeremy Pelt on half the tracks, piano phenom Orrin Evans at the Steinway & the Rhodes and Nat Reeves and Jonathan Barber completing the rhythm section, it would Jim Snidero has indeed found that "perfect thing."

Title: Infinity
Artist: TOM HARRELL

When pianist Bill Charlap featured Tom Harrell at a recent gig with his trio at New York's Jazz Standard, he summarized the trumpeter's genius as concisely as anyone could. "It is our honor and privilege," he announced, "To share the bandstand with a man who is a living, breathing melody." For this latest HighNote release, featuring a razor-sharp quintet with saxophonist Mark Turner and guitarist Charles Altura, Harrell & company combine complex compositions, seductive rhythms, advanced harmonic concepts, vibrant solos and sheer inspiration in an album which transcends the jazz idiom. This is perhaps Harrell's most imaginative recording to-date, with the scoring for the piano-less, tenor sax and guitar front line ensemble sui generis among his work.
