Title: All Or Nothing
 Artist: SUDDEN DEATH

Hörprobe: <https://bit.ly/2ZyUclZ>

Due to the competition from the USA and England, Heavy Metal made in Germany was often not noticed in the eighties. When the only LP of the Berlin band Sudden Death was released in 1987, the speed and thrash wave as well as the softer hair metal groups were also popular. Today, however, headbangers love the bands that were caught between two stools 30 years ago. For an original of „All Or Nothing“ you have to dig deep into your pockets and even a Russian CD bootleg has its costs. That’s over now, because Golden Core is now releasing a unique CD of the band, which contains the LP (remastered) and all recordings. In 1986 SUDDEN DEATH produced three tracks with Harris Johns in the Music Lab Studio, who also sat at the mixing desk on „All Or Nothing“. There were never any mangy rehearsal room demos on Sudden Death. They always produced at full throttle. The CD also contains a rare live song recorded at the “Bunderockfestival” in 1986, as well as three tracks by the follow-up band Wolfpack, professionally recorded in a studio. The booklet tells the history of Sudden Death, and also contains many rare photos and illustrations. Trendless, powerful Heavy Metal can’t sound better!
